Race and Racism in Cincinnati: A 3-Part Docuseries

A program of:

A people's history of how race shaped neighborhoods, education, and culture.

This docuseries is a telling of Cincinnati's history from the racial margins. It shares a people's history that places storytelling authority in the hands of common people, rather than political leaders or other figures in power.

This series features three separate hour-long videos that each tackle a different time span, starting from Cincinnati's birth then bringing us to the present day.

Sponsored by the Social Justice Committees of These Churches of our Lady of Divine Providence Parish:
St. Clare, St. Bernard, St. Vivian, and Mother of Christ

Please plan ahead of time should children have to remain at home.

You may also check one of the following TV stations for closings.

The second diagnostic test for I-Ready skills measurement will take place this month. Testing will be scheduled in homerooms in reading and math and will conclude by January 26. CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK 2024

Each year Catholic Schools across the united states celebrate our existence. We take time to recognize our uniqueness as well as our sameness. This year Catholic Schools Week runs from January 28 through February 2.

Each day is a different theme, with different activities for the kids. We can't run Catholic Schools Week alone! We ask that families help us make the week special for our students. Please see the list of activities and needs below.

Sunday, January 28 – we celebrate our parish! We are hosting an Open House from noon – 2:00P.M. Stop by for a tour or just to visit! If you know of any families interested in Catholic school, send them our way!

Monday, January 29 – we celebrate our community! Some of our students will be making sandwiches for Our Daily Bread soup kitchen. This will also be Movie Monday for the kids! Kids may dress up (appropriately) like a movie star. Homerooms may show movies in the afternoon and students may bring in snacks to share.

Tuesday, January 30 – we celebrate our students! Students may wear their favorite sports team apparel! Are you a Bengals fan or do you bleed blue and orange for FC Cincinnati? Wear your favorite team or sports apparel to show you're a superfan!

Wednesday, January 31 – we celebrate the nation! We'll celebrate our nation with Mass in the morning. Students should wear the regular uniform, but may bring crazy accessories to put on after Mass such as crazy hats or socks. Get out those animal ear headbands or funky bowties!

Thursday, February 1 – we celebrate vocations! We appreciate all our religious do for our schools! They guide us and counsel us in living faithfully. Thursday is Throwback Thursday! Wear clothes from any past decade! Bellbottoms anyone?

Friday, February 2 – we celebrate faculty, staff, and volunteers! Catholic schools would not be possible without those that teach, mentor, and support our students so let's give them a break! Friday will be pajama day! Wear your comfiest jammies and play carnival games organized by student council! Student council will set up carnival games for homerooms to play after lunch.

We need help with donations of prizes and snacks! Any student that brings in a box of fruit snacks, chocolate chip granola bars, or small bags of pretzels next week will earn an out of uniform day pass for the week following Catholic Schools Week.

Any Safe Parish trained parent or guardian that would like to help with carnival games, please send Mrs. Markham an email. The more the merrier!
